

Whether the restructuring of the library had been taken into account in the structural budget was questioned, and C. Smith responded that it had not, but that was not to say that it wasn't funded, as $1.4 million had been received from the province for that purpose. In response to an additional question about cost overruns in this regard, C. Smith added that normally those funds wouldn't be

That the Senate meeting be adjourned.
CARRIED.

The meeting adjourned at 4:50 p.m.

