

- Members of the GUPC noted that such a project would require a significant capital investment, however , it has potential and could be looked at from a scalable perspective
- It was also noted that as Canada's Green University, UNBC is committed to looking at all sustainability projects from a broader perspective than just the "business case"
- E Bray to bring the idea to PEC

OLD BUSINESS:

3. Pinecrete Green Fund Proposal (action)

- G Fondahl absent; tabled until March 16 meeting.

NEW BUSINESS:

4. Green Fund Subcommittee Proposal Recommendations (action) – K Wilkening

- The Green Fund recommendations were presented and the following proposals were recommended to receive funding:
  - Compost Visioning/Planning Session - $5,000
  - Wnd the folcgTJ(r)-15FeSan e fini-5(22(r)-15S)nd 1 0 0 1 3.51 546.4 Tm00.0JETBT1 0 0 1 162.02 53.